While at Central Station, I work The modern-day teacher, with the vast amount of material available, from an unlimited number of sources, makes the day of using one text obsolete. The former receives pleasant answers, the latter ill-sounding ones. In the recent Bundestag inquiry, or Enquete Kommission, into the subject, the PDS was by far the most vehement in its rejection of the commission's findings, which in general saw global trends as being of benefit to German society.
